Re: The Call
Case 1-UD-280

Dear Ms. Marcelli:

The above-captioned case, petitioning for an investigation and proceedings under Section 9(e) (1) of the National Labor Relations Act, has been investigated and considered.

Decision to Dismiss: I have decided to dismiss this petition for two reasons: (1) The Board agent handling this case has attempted to reach you by phone on numerous occasions, and has left messages for you to return her calls. In addition, by letter dated March 1, 2005, you were advised that if you did not return the investigator's calls by the close of business on March 8, 2005, your petition could be dismissed. You have never contacted the investigator. The petition is therefore dismissed for lack of cooperation. (2) You filed the petition in this matter as a "UD" petition. The showing of interest in a UD case is a signature list or similar evidence alleging that the employees covered by a union-security clause desire to rescind the authority to maintain such a clause. The showing submitted by you in this matter did not comply with that requirement. The petition is therefore also dismissed because of insufficient showing of interest.

Right to Obtain Review: Section 102.71(b) of the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations permit you to obtain a review of this action by filing a request for review with the National Labor Relations Board. If you wish to file request for review, your attention is directed to the following, which summarizes the provisions of Section 102.71(c) of the Rules:

Request Due Date: The request for review must be received by the Executive Secretary of the Board in Washington, D.C. by the close of business at 5 p.m. on March 29, 2005. However, if you mail the request, it will be considered timely if it is postmarked no later than one day before the due date. The request MAY NOT be filed by facsimile transmission.

Request Contents: The request for review (eight copies) must contain a complete statement setting forth the facts and the reasons why you believe the decision to dismiss the petition is incorrect.

Address for Request for Review: The request should be sent to the Executive Secretary of the National Labor Relations Board, 1099 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20570 by the due date specified above. You should send a copy of the request to me, and one copy of the request to each of the parties whose names and addresses are listed below.

Very truly yours,

Rosemary Pye
Regional Director
